

Buying vs. renting: which is right for you?

There's no one-size-fits-all answer — here's how the two stack up so you can decide with confidence.

Buying

PROS

- An investment — you build equity
- Potential tax breaks
- Freedom to customize your space
- More stable housing costs

CONS

- Long-term commitment
- Requires taxes and maintenance costs
- May require down payment*
- Can be difficult to sell

Renting

PROS

- No long-term commitment
- No maintenance costs
- Renter's insurance is cheaper than homeowner's
- No property taxes

CONS

- Build equity for someone else
- No tax benefits
- Little freedom to customize
- Housing costs unstable as rents go up
